Antibes and Juan-les-Pins are located between Nice and Cannes in the middle of the Côte d'Azur. Antibes was a Greek trading post 2500 years ago. The succes of the city is largely due to the Romans and still much of this history can be found in the beautiful old town. But Antibes is not only known for its history, but also for world famous artist Picasso,sunny beaches, luxury houses and hotels, the lively nightlife, the wonderful warm climate and the beautiful marina.

Cycling around Antibes is also wonderful. There are plenty of cycling routes. With routes along the beautiful coast with views over the azure blue Mediterranean Sea. And also more hilly routes which is often also a big struggle for even the trained cyclists. The landscapes in the backyards of the Côte d'Azur are also fantastic with beautiful lavender fields many old historical sites and many charming towns with nice terraces for a short break.
