Road bike rentals Costa Calida

The Costa Cálida is located not far away from the beautiful city of Murcia. Costa Cálida is bordered to the north on the Costa Blanca and in the south to Costa de Almería also known as Andalusia. Around the Costa Cálida you will find many popular cities such as the world famous port city of Cartagena. The region around Murcia and the Costa Calida attracts many cyclist tourists every year because of the many wonderful advantages around. For example, the 250 km long coastline on the Mediterranean Sea with long sandy beaches and beautiful rocks, the Mar Menor sea which is known for its water sports, many popular towns and fishing villages with cozy eateries such as: tapas bars, restaurants and cafes and the typical Spanish culture also plays certainly a role in the field of tourism.

The Costa Calida is not only famous for water sports, but also for road cyclist, there are many possibilities. With beautiful coastal routes along the Mediterranean Sea with crystal clear water, excellent hills with steep climbs and a beautiful landscape with great views. The region makes this an ideal bike destination for both less-trained cyclists and real professionals. Also a nice fact to know is that this Costa is declared as one of the healthiest areas in the world by the World Health Organization!
