Road Bike & E Bike rentals Mont Ventoux

The Mont Ventoux is a mountain located in the south of France in the Provence region. The top is at a height of 1912 meters, with clear weather you can see the summit from a long distance. The climb to the top of the Mont Ventoux is steep, long and full of history. If the climb is not heavy enough, then the wind makes it a little bit harder to cycle.

The Mont Ventoux is best known for the cycling stages in the Tour de France. The Mont Ventoux can be climbed in several ways. The climb from Bedoin is the most famous climb of over 21 kilometers. Mont Ventoux is also the highest summit in the area, which is why the mountain is also known as the "giant of Provence".

You will follow the cycle path of all the greatest riders in the Tour de France.....come on you can do it! After the 21 km climb you'll reach the summit of "Mont-Ventoux". Relax on top and prepare yourself for a very spectacular descent to the villages of Malaucène or go back to Bedoin.
