Road Bike rentals Roses & the Costa Brava

Rosas is located in the Costa Brava near the border of France and is frequently visited by many tourists every year. Rosas offers much, for example: a beautiful long beach with deep blue water, the local fishing harbour, the old town full of cosy terraces and of course the all year round sunny weather. The Costa Brava is one of the most visited coastal areas in Europe.

For cyclists it is also a true cycling paradise. Many cyclists come over to the Costa Brava for good road cycling. The mountains inland with challenging climbs, very good routes along the beautiful Mediterranean Sea and typical Catalan culture makes the area around Roses - Empuria Brava a true cycling destination. In Catalonia you can find a large network of routes and special mountain bike centers for the mountain bikers. For racing cyclists it is also coming home. It is great to cycle thanks to the beautiful routes through the mountains. It is very quiet with alternative little traffic and the routes along the rocky coasts with in between a few challenging climbs with a fantastic view of the azure blue Mediterranean Sea.
