Cagliari is the capital of the Italian island of Sardinia. The capital is situated in the south of Sardinia. In Cagliari you will find a very nice old city centre with many historical sites, cathedrals, museums and nice shops. Cagliari also has a long sandy beach and a beautiful harbour. Pula is located around 40 kilometres from Cagliari. It is a cosy village where there is always something going on. Pula has many cosy restaurants, nice shops, beautiful beaches and here you also will find many traces of the past.

Sardinia is a beautiful island to discover by bike. Cycle through the small and narrow streets of countless ancient cities. Or bike along the coast with beautiful views over the crystal clear Mediterranean sea. There are also many mountain bike routes and road cycling routes available for both experienced cyclists and starting amateurs. The roads in Sardinia are relatively quiet inland and offer an oasis of peace. There are also challenging climbs for the people who love climbing. Sardinia is a real winner in cycling and many cyclists come to Sardinia every year to celebrate their cycling holiday. Experience the real Sardinian landscape and discover Sardinia on your bike!
