Road bike rentals Côte d'Azur & experience France on an E Bike!

The Côte d'Azur is an great region to cycle in France. You can cycle breath taking rides along the Mediterranean Sea with it's sunshiny golden beaches. Cycle through Monaco where you can find the most exclusive shops, expensive cars and flashy yachts. But not only Monaco is wonderful to cycle you can choose to cycle Cannes, Antibes or Nice.

For cycling go inland or ride along the stunning coast up to Monaco, Nice or the other direction southwards to Cannes and Saint Rafael. Nice rides and certainly recommended are the climbs to Col de La Madone and Col du Vence. Start in the historic village of Vence. This twelve century perched village has the perfect starting point for a fantastic ride in the backyards of the Mediterranean Sea. The circuit is roughly 90 km (56 miles) with the climb of Col de Vence at the end. The climb is relatively steep but not especially hard. The ride starts with a short climb then a decent to Gorges du Loup from here you head to the typical perched village of Coursegoules. Virtually it's a 40 km downhill ride back to Vence before you tackle Col du Vence.

Or ride up to the yachts in Monaco's main port before heading to Menton. From this popular village you take the route up to Lance Armstrongs Col de Madone! You can also ride in the backyards of the Côte d'Azur and discover here the medieval villages. Or ride the French countryside roads surround by the mountains overlooking the Mediterranean Sea. Combine the amazing views of the Côte d'Azur with cycling in this unique region in France.
