Cycle hire Gaiole & experience Chianti on an E Bike!

Gaiole is small picturesque village right in the middle of the Chianti region. This beautiful village is situated between Florence and Siena. Every year on the first Sunday of October it seems that the time stops for a magic weekend and we all go back in time for the L'Eroica bicycle vintage event. The Eroica cycling trip is a very special one. It includes many unique features and plenty of highlights!

Chianti is a famous region in beautiful Tuscany and is known for its excellent wine. When you cycle through this region you will encounter many vineyards and wineries. A tour in one of these wineries is definitely recommended during your cycling trip! Jump on your bike and cycle over the rolling landscape of Tuscany. Tuscany is a true cycling paradise for every cyclist and there is a lot to discover. Cycle through medieval villages, cosy cities and along extensive vineyards. You will find many challenging climbs in Tuscany with spectacular descents and amazing views. There are good paved roads and there is not too much traffic inland. There is also a perfect cycling climate throughout the year.
