Road Bike hire North Italy

Cycling in the north of Italy is very popular. Many cycling tourist go to North Italy during summer time to celebrate their holidays there and visit this bike friendly region. In Lombardy you can find the largest low plain of the Italian peninsula which is also the most densely populated part of the region. Here you will find the big cities such as Bergamo, Brescia and Milan.

Lombardy also offers beautiful lakes that can be seen as a real tourist magnet such as Lake Como, Lake Maggiore and Lake Garda. Along these lakes are numerous well-constructed roads and routes with great views over the lakes. The region offers numerous high peaks of the Alps with summits above 3000m. That is why North Italy also offers many hills and other peaks with heavy challenging climbs. Also the well-constructed roads with little traffic and the perfect climate with mild winters and hot summers makes Lombardy a fantastic region for cycling. In short, you will not get bored!
