Road bike rentals Riccione and Rimini

Riccione is a Italian city located right on the Adriatic Coast in Emilia Romagna. Cycle the rolling hills of Italy or along the beautiful coast line. The area offers many fantastic cycling routes along medieval cities, vineyards, olive trees and charming villages. Cycle along the major ports or discover the old Italian buildings inland. The rolling landscapes are perfect for road cyclists and there are many great climbs with extraordinary views. Inland there is little traffic and the roads are paved. The sunny climate throughout the year makes Riccione the perfect destination for your cycling holiday in beautiful Italy.

The region of Emilia Romagna is a superb road bike destination. Many professional cyclists have trained in the hills of Emilia-Romagna, including the iconic Italian hero Marco Pantani who was born in Cesenatico. Many road cyclists explore the same routes as Pantani used during his training stages for the Tour de France or Giro d'Italia. Every year at the end of May the Gran Fondo Nove Colli start in Cesenatico. It is one of the oldest and biggest cycling events in Italy. From the hills to the sea : you can find out all about the inland and the traditions of local Romagna cuisine.
