Cycle The Queen of Granfondo

The Gran Fondo Nove Colli is one of the oldest and biggest cycling events in Italy. Every year there are over 12,000 riders who want to complete the "Nine Hills Gran Fondo". It's a must-do event for every cyclist. Now that the single registrations have sold out, there are still registrations available with a hotel package.

You'll be able to enjoy beforehand the panoramas and the old villages scattered in the hills. Discover views and hidden corners that on the day of the race you'll probably not appreciate. It will also be great to see other towns, that are not included in the itinerary of the race but have contributed to making Romagna famous. Hard training moments will be followed by culinary moments where you'll enjoy the typical kitchen of Romagna, and you'll be able to restore strength and "feed" your legs. The training programs have been studied in a way that you can participate even if you've enrolled in the short race. The 3-star Bike hotel offers all cyclists excellent facilities for the Gran Fondo Nove Colli. The hotel has safe bike storage.

Itinerary

Day 1

Check in Wednesday

Check-in at the 4* bike hotel in Cesenatico. You'll get a race pack and an information pack. There will be a bike fitting if you have rented one of the high-quality high-end Pinarello carbon bikes. Before dinner, the tour guide will explain the coming activities and you'll get a brief explanation of the training rides and GF Nove Colli itinerary. Evening dinner will be provided.

Day 2

Thursday

Your first training ride around Cesenatico! The region is a land of cyclists and the birthplace of Marco Pantani, the great climber, who trained in the hinterland hills and got 46 career victories! The hills in the backyards of Cesenatico are sometimes gentle and sometimes steep. You'll ride among olive groves and vineyards. In fact, you'll experience the charm of the Nove Colli, the oldest Gran Fondo and certainly the most popular, with 12,000 participants

Day 3

Friday

In the morning you can leave for a nice tour around Rimini/Cesenatico. Stretch your legs and get used to the local roads of Emilia Romagna in preparation for the upcoming Nove Colli Gran Fondo. After the training ride, you can walk along the Adriatic Sea. Evening dinner included.

Day 4

Saturday

Last ride before tomorrow's big ride! Cesenatico is a tourist resort town right on the Adriatic coast of Italy. It is located in the Emilia Romagna district. Cycling around the beautiful resort town of Cesenatico goes back a long way. Many professional cyclists have trained in the hills around the town; including the iconic Italian hero Marco Pantani who was born in Cesenatico. From the hills to the sea: you can find out all about the inland and the traditions of local Romagna cuisine. Check your bike before also there will be a short briefing and hand-over of the bib numbers. Perhaps you have questions left so don't hesitate to ask the guides for any information you need! In the evening a pasta dinner will be provided.

Day 5

Sunday

Finally, the day of the race! After an early breakfast, this is your moment! It's time to use your energy and replace it with the emotions of the race. The competition is the most famous in Italy. There is an average of more than 12 thousand participants each year. There are two different course lengths:

- Granfondo Nove Colli Long distance 200 km; 3480m total altitude Total up 89km, Total down 77km, Flat 34km
- Mediodondo 130km; 1871m total altitude Total up 50km, Total down 46km, Flat 34km

Day 6

Monday

Departure day... Time to say goodbye, a good flight back home, or a pleasant stay in Italy.
