Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival day

The tour starts today, you can either make your way to your hotel in Chambéry, the hotel Kyriad or you can make use of the airport arrival transfers from Geneva airport. Airport transfers today from Geneva Airport at 13:00 and 18:00. Chambéry is also served by a direct TGV connection with Paris Gare de Lyon which takes about 3 hours only. A transfer from the train station in Chambéry is also possible. This evening you will be assisted with putting your bikes together, if you are travelling with your bike. You will also have your rental bike ready if you have chosen for this option.

Day 2

La Tour du Pin - Villard de Lans

Today the Tour de France is coming closer. The finish of today's stages is in Villard de Lans and the stage takes in 4 categorised climbs before finishing at the ski resort of Villard de Lans.

A fully supported ride today to the Col de Porte to watch the riders come past as they scale the summit. From Chambéry you will ride the 60 km to the summit of the col de Porte. You will park our coach in Saint-Laurent-du-Pont where spectators can stay to watch the riders come past as they start the climb. After the finish transport back to Chambéry from Saint-Laurent-du-Pont.

Day 3

Grenoble to Meribel

The next stage will start from Grenoble and we finish in Meribel. Meribel is a popular French ski resort in the Tarentaise valley in Savoie. Cyclists can join us for our guided ride to the Relais Etape today which is a lunch time VIP experience. A guided ride to the Relais Etape, for the cyclists and spectators will get there in our tour vehicle. En route from Chambéry there is a stop in Albertville where the cyclists start their ride today. Follow the valley road past La Lechère and the bottom of the Col de Madeleine to Moutiers from where you ride the final section of the stage up to the Relais Etape VIP area. Once there relax and watch the stage on TV before seeing the riders come past on their way to the summit of today's stage on the new Col de Loze. For both riders and spectators we offer the Relais Etape experience. You get to enjoy a sitdown lunch, a comfortable setting with a large screen to watch today's deciding stage. The Relais Etape is an area on the course of a Tour de France stage which takes the form of a small village in prime position along the route. We will accommodate a ride to this area for those who are cycling and spectating are taken directly to the Relais Etape to enjoy the day.

Day 4

Meribel to La Roche sur Foron

Today you'll all go to the finish at La Roche sur Foron. Cyclists will have the Cross the Finish experience followed by Finish Hospitality at the Isoard area. Spectators will go directly to the Isoard so the group will be together at the finish. We have a treat for you in store for today. The cyclists can join us for our "cross the finish line" VIP experience. We will ride on the very roads that the peloton will ride just hours later. After you have crossed the finish line we will all have our photos taken on the winners podium.
