Itinerary

Day 1

Check in

Check in around 14.00 at your charming hotel in Lucca. There will be a briefing, bike fitting and the tour organizer explains the coming itinerary of this cycle Lucca-Pisa Trip road cycling tour. Airport transfers from Pisa or Florence airport (on request). Overnight in Lucca.

Day 2

Lucca countryside - altitude 330m or 150m

Lucca and its countryside deserve a sightseeing tour along the local roads, unbeaten by tourists, among medieval hamlets, parish churches, small farms and old oil mills, where the famous extra virgin oil d.o.p. of Lucca is produced. A taste of pure countryside before going to the sea. We have selected an easy itinerary of about 36km and one a little more challenging of 59km to give you a chance to take really all the best of this area.

Day 3

Lucca to Viareggio - altitude 150m

We leave Lucca in the morning, when streets and typical shops look more lively and bright. Leaving the city centre you will pass by an old Carthusian monastery and Nozzano, an ancient hamlet maintaining its original aspect and fortifications, to reach Massaciuccoli park, on Massaciuccoli lake, after a country uphill road. From the short hill you will have an enchanting view of the park, the coast and the sea on the horizon. From here to Viareggio, Marina di Pietrasanta and Versilia beaches it's a pleasant biking in a totally different landscape.

Day 4

Versilia to Pisa - altitude flat

The third stage of the tour starts cycling along the "Versilia" promenade, one of the most famous in Tuscany. You will cross the small town of Viareggio, known as resort for famous people, for its Carnival and for the production of yachts and luxurious boats. Changing scenery again you will bike through the Natural Park of "Migliarino - San Rossore- Massaciuccoli", typical for its sweet-smelling pinewoods and sand dunes, and visit Torre del Lago Puccini, on its centre. The tour will take you in Pisa again for the night.
